

2006 ACHIEVEMENT AWARD PROGRAM

Applications are available for the 2006 Achievement Awards, a non-competitive awards program which seeks to recognize innovative county government programs initiated by county governments and personnel.

Who is eligible to submit applications?

County governments and state associations of counties are eligible to apply. There is no limit to the number of applications one can submit.

What are the criteria?

Applications are judged solely against the criteria standards, which are listed in the applications.

Where can I get an application?

Applications are available by mail or on the NACo Web site, at www.naco.org. Contact 202-661-8834 or jhansen@naco.org to receive an application by mail.

What do I win?

Winning applications receive a certificate and national recognition in our Model County Programs Database. They are also eligible to receive a Best of Category plaque and be highlighted in County News. All winners are invited to attend our awards ceremony at our Annual Conference, to be held next summer in Cook County, Illinois.

Entries must be postmarked by February 10, 2006

If you have any questions about the application process or would like additional application forms, please call Joseph Hansen, at 202-661-8834 or e-mail at jhansen@naco.org, or fax your inquiry to the NACo Research Division at 202-737-0480.
