- Manageable variables of a case—how what you do can affect the outcome
- Tips on handling press relations
- Hiring qualified legal representation
- Hypothetical cases & examples
- Review of pertinent high-profile cases
- Verdicts - the ultimate wild card

The Instructor

Attorney Mike Patterson, originally from Spokane, has lived and worked in several other places and fields. He received a BA degree in Political Science from Gonzaga University, JD from Notre Dame, and a Master's of Law from New York University. He has been a litigation attorney at the Seattle firm of Lee, Smart, Cook, Martin & Patterson since 1977. Prior to that, he held a similar position at a New York firm, and before law, held positions as a Stock Auditor at Shearson & Hammill Co., Customer Relations Supervisor for UPS, and an Assistant District Manager for The Spokesman-Review.

Mike is a member of the Washington State and King County bar associations, Washington Defense Trial Lawyers Association and Washington Council of School Attorneys.

For the past 15 years, he has concentrated his practice on representing municipalities including many cities, counties and school districts throughout the state.
